

Remember when you lived A Kid's Life . . .

Remember the bullies?

...the homework?

...the pressure to fit in?

"Should I tease...the fat kid?
disabled kid?"

...the bad athlete?

WHY did I do that?

Why did I use those words?

For the laugh?

For the thrill?

(...because my parents were getting divorced! I was mad . . .it was my right!)

But was it my right? Don't I have to take responsibility for my choices?"

And what about. . .

DRUGS!!! (Why not try them? I'll make new friends...I'll be cool!)

But... I HAVE CHOICES!!!

They will hurt me...

they could KILL ME... (I have CHOICES)

I want to lead a good life...

I can...

...be compassionate to others...
can...

to myself...

I

choose good friends...

I can make good decisions...

I can lead a great kid's life (and some day, an adult's life too) I have CHOICES!

A Kids Life

See the play that kids have called, “The best assembly we’ve ever had!” ... and principals (references upon request) have called “...a production of great humor and resonance...months later, our faculty and students still talk about this play!”

Written and performed by Parent’s Choice Gold Award winner ROBBO, A Kid’s Life is for grades four through six. It is a one-man stage play/musical in which ROBBO plays eight different characters, from the bully to the disabled child, from the drug dealing ‘friend’ to the popular kid who uses peer pressure on others. This play is filled with great humor and deep seriousness...never preachy, always right on in its approach to getting young audiences to listen, to understand, and to take positive action. ROBBO can spend the day at your school and do several intimate classroom performances, or he can do larger assemblies as well. A Kid’s Life is most effective at its running time of one hour and ten minutes, but can be edited to suit your needs.
